Conference Met Last Night at City Hall

The Lowell Charity conference met last night at the office of Supt. Courtney, of the charities department. Chairman Courtney presided. A committee was appointed to look into the work of the charities department of Boston, and report back to the body at the next monthly meeting. Another committee was appointed to arrange for addresses by men familiar with the kind of work for which the conference is intended.

At the last meeting of the conference the question of different charities throughout the city being imposed upon was discussed. There are men and women who make it their business to go about imposing on charities, and those who have had experience in charitable work in this city, say that Lowell has a full quota of imposters. Last night the conference discussed methods to weed out the imposters. It was suggested that all organizations represented in the conference, present a list of those who receive assistance, at least, those of whom little is known, to the chairman and hold it for reference. In this manner the history of the suspicious cases could be looked up.

Reference was made to the district nurse work and it seemed to meet with general approval. Those in attendance at the conference last night included:

Secretary Emily M. Skilton, Dr. Moses C. Parker of the Ayer home, Rev. C. T. Billings of the First Unitarian church, Walter Chase of the Paige Street F. B. church, Mrs. W. B. Jackson of the Ayer Home, Capt. W. S. Greenaway of the Salvation Army, Mrs. Daniel Light, and Miss Froda Dietz of St. Paul's M. E. church, Miss Ellen O'Leary of the Children's home, Mrs. Maria Morse of the Kirk street day nursery, Mrs. Julia Tarr, Ayer home, Rev. Mr. Dunne of the Highland Congregational church, Mrs. C. W. Fuller and Mrs. S. K. Thomson of the Fifth Street Baptist church, Mrs. Winifred Nelson of the Fifth Street Congregational church, Rev. Isaac LaFleur, pastor of the French Baptist church, Mrs. Jennie Sleeper and Mrs. Nancy Welch of the Pentecostal church, Mrs. C. E. Sherman of the First Unitarian church, Rev. C. E. Fisher, pastor of First Universalist church, Mrs. Addie Labue and Mrs. Mary Slater of the Highland Methodist church, Mr. Ambrose Rindie of the Gorham Street M. E. church, Dr. L. C. Manchester of St. John's church, Agent Richardson of the Lowell Humane society, Miss E. C. Abbott, Chelmsford Street F. B. church, Miss Sadie Munson, Centralville M. E. church, H. L. Newhall of the Pawtucket church, and a representative of the Research club.

IN POLICE COURT

The so-called liquor cases were scheduled for trial this morning, but by agreement of counsel, they were continued till the 25th of the month. The defendants in the cases are Michael J. Diney, Adelard and Rose Nolan, Martin Farrell and Owen J. Carney, John J. Lee, John C. McLaughlin and Ernest Gunther. These cases were brought as a result of the strenuous efforts of the Lowell Law and Order league.

The case of John Hoban, charged with assault and battery on Wm. N. Penny, was continued till next Monday.

William E. Brady, a third offender, was sentenced to the state farm. He appeared.

Nicholas Bergen, a second offender, was fined $6 and two first offenders were fined $2 each.

The municipal primaries, held yesterday, proved the most interesting and most largely attended in many years, while the results showed some remarkable surprises to which hundreds found it difficult to reconcile themselves.

The most remarkable feature of the primaries was the vote of Police Officer George H. Brown, the winning republican candidate and erstwhile "joke" candidate. While bets were freely offered that he would receive 1000 votes, and the more sanguine bet the short end on his nomination and even chartered a few even bets, but none dreamed that Mr. Brown would not only receive the nomination but would carry every one of the 27 precincts of the city; poll over 2900 votes more than his nearest opponent and poll over 1600 votes more than the combined vote of his three opponents. That's what happened to Brown!

TEXTILE NOTES

Interesting Items From
Mill Centers

MOHAWK, N. Y., Nov. 18.—It is expected that another dividend of 10 per cent. will be paid by the trustees of the bankrupt Mohawk Valley Knitting Mill, following the report of the receivers, John B. Wild and R. E. Steele. This will make a total dividend of 45 cents paid to creditors from the assets of the corporation. It is also expected that another 15 per cent. will be received from the estates of the directors of the company who were all thrown into bankruptcy. This will make a dividend of about 60 cents on a dollar, which will be paid to residents of the Mohawk Valley, who loaned thousands of dollars to the bankrupt company. It is understood that the directors of the company recently offered to settle with the creditors for $75,000 which would have enabled the trustees to pay a dividend of about 30 cents from the directors' estates. This offer was turned down by the creditors, and it is believed that now not to exceed 50 cents on the dollar will be received from this source. Those in charge of the bankrupt estate hope to have the matters all cleared up by Jan. 1.

KNITTING MILL BUSY
MANCHESTER, Conn., Nov. 18.—The business boom has struck Manchester, and the Manchester Green mill of the Clanton Knitting Co. has started on overtime to 9 o'clock at night. This mill, like many others in the country, has been affected by the business depression, and for six weeks recently the entire plant was closed down. A big order was placed just before election with the understanding that it was to be filled if Taft was elected, but to be countermanded if he was defeated. Now to all orders, the plant is working on a 13-hour schedule.

EAGLE SILK MILL ADDITION
SHAMOKIN, Pa., Nov. 18.—Pagle Brothers, conducting a silk mill here, have issued orders to the Shamokin Lumber Co. to proceed at once on a $20,000 extension to the mill building near Edgewood Park. Twenty-five additional carpenters will be hired by the lumber company to start the mill order, while the company will build a number of new houses in various portions of the town.

BIRTHDAY PARTY
Last evening a merry party gathered at the home of Mrs. Minnie Lear, 362 Lincoln street, to congratulate her on the anniversary of her birth. She received many costly presents. Miss Bella Lear entertained at the piano, and solos were sung by Miss Edna Lear and Miss Bernice Lake. The Misses Bertha and Grace Gordon gave a pretty exhibition of dancing.

WIDOWED DUCHESS TO WHOM A SON IS BORN

PARIS, Nov. 18.—News of the birth of a son to the widowed young Duchess de Chaulmieu in Paris was received in America through a cable dispatch from her father, Theodore P. Shonts. The Duke de Chaulmieu and Miss Shonts were married in New York on Feb. 15, 1903 and went immediately to Paris.

There the duke died suddenly on April 23, six weeks after the wedding. The posthumous boy is heir to his father's ancient title, he inherits the Chateau de Dampiere and in the natural course will inherit the fortune his mother will receive from her parents.

TEWKSBURY
At the home of Mrs. George D. Foristall in Tewksbury Centre, yesterday afternoon, the Ladies' Aid society of the Congregational church of that town met and voted to hold the annual Christmas sale the second Wednesday in December.

BILLERICA
In the Mathew hall, North Billerica, last night, there was a largely attended meeting of the Mathew Total Abstinence society of that place. Ten candidates were admitted to the organization and seven names were proposed for membership. A considerable amount of routine business was transacted during the session. The anniversary committee met after the regular meeting and perfected arrangements for the 21st anniversary of the society, which takes place in Thomas Talbot Memorial hall next Saturday evening. This popular temperance organization will open its social season Wednesday evening, Nov. 25, with a grand social function in Thomas Talbot Memorial hall.

CASEY AND BROWN

Continued

On the democratic side the partisans of Messrs. Cummings and Casey throughout the day cried: "Cummings or Brown," or "Casey and Brown." Toward evening the Casey sentiment prevailed and the result was not matter of doubt after the close of the polls. Messrs. Carmichael and Dwyer were not in the running at all. Cummings receiving more votes than Casey, while Mr. Casey defeated Mr. Cummings by a substantial plurality of 700 votes. Hon. James H. McKimley received only a few more votes than Mr. Dwyer and his weakness in the caucuses came as a tremendous surprise to his friends in both parties. It was said of both Messrs. Cummings and Casey, "If he can get by the caucuses he will win at the polls."

The result of the contest for purchasing agent on the democratic side was not unexpected, for while Mr. Dwyer made a valiant fight and worked hard, in Mr. Cosgrove he had one of the best vote getters in Lowell to contend against. Mr. Cosgrove got a very substantial plurality. Of course Mr. MacKenzie had no opposition in the caucuses and received a great majority over "Mr. Blank."

The four present democratic members of the board of aldermen were re-nominated while Alderman Owen Brennan received the highest vote cast for any candidate in the caucuses even beating the phenomenal vote of Candidate Brown. Messrs. Connors and Curtin are ex-councilmen. Mr. Gallagher is an ex-alderman. Charles J. Burns, is a popular Centralville tonsorial artist and popular "Tommy" McDermott, the well known undertaker and manager of the vast real estate interest of Jas. H. McDermott, was the ninth man on the democratic ticket. Of the nine republican candidates for aldermen eight have had previous experience at City Hall. Messrs. Read, Cheney and Gray are members of the present board of aldermen. Mr. Badger was formerly an alderman and for a time acting Mayor. Mr. Stevens is president of the common council and Messrs. Adams, Dwyer and Wainwright are members of the common council. John Turner the only novice is the well known manufacturer and lover of sports.

At City Hall
The returns were received at City Hall by an immense throng. As usual the counters in ward seven got their returns in first, shortly after 11 o'clock and when it was found that Brown had carried the Pawtucketville precinct in which both he and Mr. McKimley reside, the last man to hold out that Mr. Stevens was a "joke" throw up his hands in despair. Of course ward three was the lazy ward and was the last to come, and precinct two, the banner precinct of the city for taking its time, did not reach City Hall until 11:45 this morning.

The common council and school board contests showed some surprises. Notably the defeat of Mr. Wiggins in ward three. In ward one Councilman Aleck McKenzie, who was confined to his home throughout the campaign, was renominated by a good vote, his brother John conducting his campaign affairs while he was away. Councilman Cotto, who was out of town during the campaign, was defeated in ward two. In ward five two candidates, Messrs. Sullivan and Tracy, are tied for the third place and a recount will be necessary. It was a noticeable fact, however, that in about all the other contests the results were so clearly defined as to preclude the idea of recounts.

Splendid For Your Kidneys;
Also Makes Rheumatism Go

There are more cases of kidney trouble here now than ever before, while recent reports show that more people succumb each year to some form of kidney disease than any other cause.

When there is sickness, examine the urine. Rheumatism is only a symptom of kidney trouble. It is nothing more or less than excessive uric acid in the blood, which the sluggish, inactive kidneys have failed to sift out, leaving it to decompose and settle about the joints and muscles, causing intense suffering, frequently resulting in deformity, often reaching the heart, when death ensues.

Pains across the back, frequent painful and suppressed urination and other symptoms of weak bladder are not the only signs of kidney trouble. Many cases of stomach disease, headache, pain in the heart, inactive liver, etc., are but symptoms; the cause of which can be traced to feeble, clogged kidneys.

A simple test of the urine is to void a small quantity in a bottle or glass and let it stand over night; next morning, if there is a reddish brick-dust sediment or white fleecy substance present, either consult some reputable physician or take a good vegetable treatment. The following prescription is recommended highly in these cases, and the sufferer can mix it at home: Compound Kargon, one ounce; Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well and use in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime.

Where any of the symptoms enumerated above are present, good results are sure to follow immediately the use of this simple prescription.

LARRY TEMPLE

Knocked Out Joe Walcott in 10th Round

BOSTON, Nov. 18.—Joe Walcott, famed the world over as the Barbadoes Demon, winner of hundreds of battles, at one time the greatest fighting machine in action under the Queensbury code, a dwarf who whipped giants with ease, last night tasted decisive defeat for the first time in his career when he was practically knocked out by Larry Temple in the tenth round at the Armory A. A. At the time that Temple sent in the hard left to the stomach, followed by the right to the jaw, that topped Walcott to the canvas, there remained but eight seconds to the limit of the contest.

Men were there who had seen Walcott at his best, and had seen him whip some of the best pugilists the ring had ever known, and these men, remembering only the wonderful deeds of the past, cheered Walcott in defeat as heartily as they had when he walked from the ring a victor. The bout had been rather uninteresting throughout, and there was a general feeling that neither of the veterans was trying his best. This feeling was so strong throughout the audience at one stage of the bout that there was considerable hissing.

In the main event Hugh F. Clavin, known as Young Ernie of Philadelphia, went ten fast rounds to a draw, according to the referee's verdict. The partisans of the South Boston man approved the finding, but the majority of the spectators believed Ernie had the better of matters in all but the last round, and that the visitor was entitled to the credit of a win.

This battle was fast from start to finish. Murphy was the more rugged of the pair, but he was plainly ill at ease in the first two rounds, due to his anxiety to make a good showing on his first appearance hereabouts as a star. Ernie's dazzling speed and puzzling left hand was too much of a combination for Murphy until the latter got settled. Eddie began to show up well after the third round, when he tried to get in close to Ernie and swap punches. At this style of milling Murphy was good, but the superior blocking and experience of Ernie counted strongly in his favor and he was able to discount the best Murphy could offer.

The twelfth round found Murphy having a shade the better of the going. In the opening bout, which was also of ten rounds, Willie Wiley of South Boston got the verdict after a rather slow bout, in which Decker failed to live up to his record.

POLICE BOARD

Held a Meeting Behind Closed Doors

The board of police held a rather lengthy as well as important meeting this morning, but at the conclusion of the session, shortly before noon the commissioners declared that nothing of importance had transpired. Supt. William B. Moffatt of the police department was closeted with the commissioners for some little time and it is understood that the meeting took the form of an indignation meeting. The different members were questioned by a representative of The Sun, but all were silent as to the business.

FOOT INJURED

CAUGHT IN ELEVATOR AND CRUSHED

Charles James, aged about 35 years, residing at 35 Channing street, met with a mishap this morning at 7.30 o'clock, while at work at the Lowell Textile mill on West Adams street. He was engaged in his duties as elevator man, at the mill, when his left foot was caught in the elevator and flooring crushing the instep badly. He was removed to the Lowell hospital in an ambulance.

CASEY HONORED

Friends Conveyed Him to His Home

A great crowd assembled in front of The Sun office last night to hear the returns from the different precincts of the city.

ery polling booth, and as fast as each block of fifty votes was counted, the result was telephoned to The Sun office and megaphoned, so that the waiting crowd was informed of the standing of the candidates as the count progressed.

When it became evident that Casey and Brown had won out there was great enthusiasm and later on a large number of Mr. Casey's supporters engaged a carriage and had it driven to the headquarters of the candidate, in Central street. There were gathered more than one thousand friends of the democratic nominee and they insisted on paying a tribute to the candidate.

They unhitched the horses and despite the protest of Mr. Casey, they insisted on drawing him to his home in Summer street. At Tower's Corner, on the way to the candidate's home, there was a stop and Mr. Casey was obliged to make a speech. Then when he arrived at his home there was another outburst of enthusiasm and again Mr. Casey was obliged to respond to calls for a speech. When Mr. Casey reached his home he was greeted by his mother and there he had a few more words to say to his friends before he retired. Mr. Casey announced that his headquarters will be open until the close of the municipal campaign.

paign and he invited all to meet him there and discuss campaign affairs.

Brown Greeted
George Brown, the republican candidate for mayor was given a grand reception in a downtown restaurant last night when the returns indicated that he had won the nomination. The great number of diners gave the police officer a rousing cheer and Mr. Brown made a tour of the restaurant and shook hands with every one present.

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reldy, business manager, and Alfred Pilotte, pressman, of The Sun, before me, JAMES I. 1908.

JAMES E. O'DONNELL, Notary Public.

This is by far the largest net average circulation of any newspaper in Lowell.

The aldermanic tickets selected indicate the exercise of good judgment.

None of the joke candidates landed.

THE MAYORALTY NOMINEES.

Hon. James B. Casey is a great campaigner. His victory has proved that the people of Lowell believe in him. Every attempt made to throw obstacles in his way was turned to his advantage by his tact and skill as a debater, and the promptness with which he landed back on every assailant.

Mr. Brown's campaign was the most spectacular ever seen in Lowell. The people had been looking for something different from the old stereotyped methods of campaign and Brown gave it to them. His campaign was chiefly one of denunciation. But whatever it was it went with the republicans. On election day we expect Mr. Casey to be triumphantly elected. The voters of this city will have an important duty to perform on December 8. We expect a great democratic victory.

WHAT THE PEOPLE WANT.

For several weeks past the mayoralty candidates of whom there were eight have been appealing to the people for support and devising every scheme they could to win favor with the people.

Now that the caucuses are over it may be pertinent to ask what do the people want in municipal government?

They want, first of all, a business-like administration of affairs and a dollar's worth for every dollar expended.

They want public honesty and public economy, but at the same time they want a progressive government that will make all necessary improvements, maintain clean streets, attractive parks and play-grounds together with good schools in which the children will receive a practical education under safe and sanitary conditions. They want an equitable assessment of property, and they want the large corporations to pay their just share of the taxes. As a rule most of these corporations do so already, but it is believed that several of them are able to hoodwink our assessors into under-rating the value of certain property. They want the administration to adopt, so far as practicable, a pay-as-you-go policy so as not to draw upon the future for current expenses; they want the public debt reduced and with it the rate of taxation which at the present time presses so heavily upon the owners of property.

It is only by reducing the taxrate and by a fair distribution of the burdens of taxation that we can find any inducement to new enterprises so necessary to increase the opportunities for employment. We want new industries of various kinds other than textile in order to diversify our industries so that when a business depression comes, as come it will, we shall not find ourselves entirely dependent upon any one industry. In fine we want a government that will exert its influence for the greatest good of the greatest number that will stamp out grafting and make the public good the paramount consideration in the management of our city affairs.

SEEN AND HEARD

What a timid little snow squall!

Now that your man was defeated, don't go stubbing your toe to the winner.

Brown always did have a good run in Lowell. It was quite popular with the ladies only a short time ago.

Don't be afraid to express an opinion, but don't be too anxious to express it.

This would be a funny old world if we were all content to do the heavy listening. Somebody must talk, you know.

There is one man at Hathaway's theatre this week who can hold his job and not keep straight. He's a contortionist.

"I learn," she said, reproachfully, "that you were devoted to no fewer than five girls before you finally proposed to me. How do I know that you didn't make desperate love to all of them?"

"I did," he replied promptly. "Certainly," he returned. "You don't suppose for a moment that I would be foolish enough to try for such a prize as you are without practicing a little first, do you?"

In a foreign periodical a contributor tells of a woman who was informed that she had overdrawn her account in a bank and who wrote saying that she was very sorry and enclosed a check on the same bank which she hoped would set matters right; also of another woman who presented a cancelled check to a cashier and upon being advised that she could get no money for it there asked if she should go around behind the wire-work and collect on it.

There has long been a disposition to make light of the vagaries of women in money matters, but as a matter of plain fact, any sport of that kind that may be enjoyed at their expense is a reflection upon men. Women make mistakes with money because, as a rule they have precious little of it, so little that they do not become accustomed to handling it. A woman who has to depend on the change that she can shake out of her husband's pockets or save after she has paid for "nine dollars' worth of necessities with a ten-dollar bill doesn't hurry down to a bank and live it, or, if once or twice in the course of a life-time she has enough money to make a deposit, bank worth while it isn't surprising, surely, that she acts green and shies at the receiving and paying tellers so to speak.

If your wife is spending more than $70,000 a year just call her attention to the fact that good authorities have stated in New York recently that $30,000 is sufficient yearly spending money for any woman to exist comfortably on.

A New York physician is building up a practice through a novel method. He sleeps daytime and answers only night calls. His theory that there is no business enough to make it profitable for the physician who can go to a patient fully rested and with a clear head has worked out well. Wonder what he would do if his night patients should need medical attendance during the day?

THE IRISH BIRD CHARMER
Wid more or less of tuneful grace,
As fits a Celtic singer,
I've praised the "great bird of our race."The stork, the blessing bringer.
When first to my poor roof he came,
How sweetly he was sung to!
I called him every dachin name.
That I could lay my tongue to.
But, glory be! that praise from me
So pleased the simple creature
His visits here have come to be
A sort of second nature.
I'm glad to see him now an' then,
But, glory be to heaven!
If here he isn't back again.
An' this is number seven!Och! though this gift of song may be
In many ways a blessing,
It brings some popularity
That gets to be distressing.
Now, mind, I love this Irish bird—
We couldn't live without him—
An' sure, I'll not take back a word
I ever said about him.
But now when all these mouths to feed
Are out Elisha's ravens.
Beggars! if they were round these days
An' I could make them hear me.
I'd sing them such a song of praise
'Twould keep them always near me.
—T. A. Daly, in the Catholic Standard and Times.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

THE CUBAN ELECTIONS

Worcester Post: Jingoism and what Prof. Hart in his American nation calls "occult commercial forces working for the annexation of Cuba" will get little comfort from the presidential election in that island Saturday. Gov-

Gen. Magoon declares with enthusiasm that the Cubans have conducted their contest in a way to "establish to my complete satisfaction their fitness to be entrusted with the government of the republic." Only two cases of slight disorder are reported. The vote cast was much larger than in the municipal elections in August and so far as heard from shows some 70 per cent. of the qualified electors participating. This means that the indifference to political duty which is always the worst enemy of free government is disappearing and those elements that were before inclined to hold aloof are taking part. The candidacy of Gen. Moncal for the conservatives is doubtless in large degree the explanation of this fact.

DEFENSE THAT DOESN'T DEFEND

Worcester Post: The letters given out by Senator Foraker today do not really alter the case as it stood before. They show that he acted as consulting attorney for the Standard Oil company in its involved litigation. Perhaps the $29,500 he received was not excessive fees as lawyers' fees go nowadays in big cases.

But they do not explain what is unexplainable. The letters exploited by Hearst in the campaign showed that under cover of this lawyer-relation Standard Oil was soliciting his support in matters before the legislature and in nominations for the judiciary. What he actually did, if anything, this time does not appear. But he did not spurn the offer, as a public man of sensitive honor should and indignantly resign from the employment of a client that contrived to include such service.

PEOPLE OF NOTE

Edmund C. Lee, clerk of the New York children's court is dead at the age of 72. He is credited with having organized, in 1856, the Rocky Mountain Climbers, the first unformed political marching club in the United States.

Mrs. Melba has taken leave of her London public for eighteen months. Next month she comes to the Manhattan Opera house in New York for a few weeks and then goes to Australia to give a hundred concerts there, fifteen in small towns. "The size doesn't matter," she told an inquirer. "My only one of sentiment, like Jenny Lind's in Sweden. I want to go to Australia to hear me." Next autumn, if present plans hold, she will come back to the United States for still another concert tour.

Miss Nethersole sends word that she will begin another American tour at the end of next month.

Mrs. Nazimova's acting as Nora Helmer and Hedda Gabler has been sharply criticised in Chicago, where she is now appearing for the first time since she became an English-speaking actress. Almost with one accord the reviewers find it tricky, self-conscious and distorting to the characters it would impart.

The distinction of being the tallest actress on the stage belongs to Miss Irene Smith, who plays La Bebe Bax in the new Drury Lane drama, in London. She stands 6 feet 1½ inches in her stockings. It seems somewhat incongruous that she should wear high heels, her hair brushed high over a pad and a high hat in order to give a greater impression of height. That is, however, what she does, so as to realize the description of being 6 feet 4 inches in height, in accordance with the design of the authors.

Edgar H. Wells, '97, general secretary of the Alumni association and joint editor of the Harvard Bulletin, has left Cambridge for a six weeks' trip to the principal cities of the country, chiefly in the west and middle west, where he will be the guest of the Harvard alumni clubs and will speak at various meetings. In addition he will do what he can to further the interests of the university appointment office, of which he is the secretary, by work among the graduates who are in business occupations where they require the services of other Harvard graduates. At a recent meeting in Boston of the executive committee of the Alumni association the following officers were chosen for the ensuing year: Vice-presidents, George E. Adams, '60, of Chicago, and John Lowell, '77, of Boston; treasurer, Albert Thorndike, '31, of Weston; secretary, E. H. Wells, '97, of Boston. Three new men were chosen to the nominating committee which puts up the candidates for members of the board of overseers: Charles S. Bird, '77, of East Walpole; Charles P. Ames, '79, principal of Phillips Exeter academy; and Amos T. French, '85, of New York. The president of the Alumni association will be elected in January at the next meeting of the executive committee.

The next meeting of the New England College Librarians will be held at Bowdoin college on November 27-28. The following topics can be briefly discussed from the standpoint of personal experience: "A Central Lending Library and Bureau of Information for College Libraries"; "Possible Improvements in Our Catalogue Systems"; "Open Shelves"; "Business Records and Library Accounts"; "Should a College Library Preserve Material Outside the Lines of its Work?"; "How Shall We Encourage General Cultural Reading Among Students?"; "Student Assistants in the Library"; "Methods for Securing the Symmetrical Growth of the Different Departments of College Libraries"; "Limitation of the Number of Books to be Accepted as Gifts When the Volumes Offered Are Not Likely to be Recommended for Purchase."

Arrangements Made for a Whist Party

The regular meeting of the Mathew Temperance Institute was held last night. The whist party committee reported that all arrangements were completed for the regular Thursday evening parties which are held in the rooms.

The committee in charge of the anniversary of the society reported that their plans were being completed, and assured the members that a pleasant evening's entertainment would be given on that day.

The following members were appointed as members of the entertainment committee for the winter term: Messrs. Hugh J. Molloy, James J. Gallagher, John W. Sharkey, Patrick J. Begley, John J. Coyne.

At last evening's meeting three propositions for membership were received, and two new members were admitted.

SENATOR GRIMES

In Contest for President of the Senate

Under the headline "The Senate Presidency" the latest issue of Practical Politics has the following:

Developments have been so rapid in the past few days in the contest for the senate presidency that it is hardly safe to write a story a day ahead for fear that the status of the candidates may have changed before the story reaches the public. Claims and counter claims are being made in behalf of the two leading candidates, Sens. Shaw and Treadway, most of the claims ridiculous on the face of them. It is undeniably true that Sen. Treadway himself, up to the time of writing, has made no such claim and recognizes that he has yet to secure a few votes before he can claim a majority. And he is hustling for them. Whether he can get them remains to be seen. Powerful influences are being exerted in his behalf and the only question is whether these influences will be able to pull out from under Sen. Shaw some of his support. This must be done before a majority can be secured for Treadway. People who accused Shaw of bluffing when he claimed right along that a clear majority of the republican members-elect were lined up for him now recognize that he was not bluffing but was stating a fact and some of the Shaw men must be taken from the Essex senator before he can be beaten. The efforts of the next few days will be exerted in his direction besides in attempting to secure the pledges of those members who are as yet undecided.

If Sen. Shaw has 13 votes at the present time, and he has, no feat of numerical acrobaticism can figure out 18 for Sen. Treadway. For a long time 18 from 34 has only left 16 remaining but in this case while the subtrahend for the time being at least must be figured on as 18 the minuend cannot be reckoned as 34 for Sen. Shaw's away from him before he will have 18. Sen. Shaw meantime has the same opportunity to secure the unpledged members as has Sen. Treadway. And it must not be forgotten that Sen. Grimes is to be reckoned with. It will probably be a week before the senate presidency is absolutely settled but in the meanwhile in considering all changes in the present status of the candidates these figures must be used for a basis: republican senators, 34; favorable to Shaw, 18; unpledged, 3; Sen. Grimes still in the field.

A BIG SENSATIONTwo Youths Arrested on a Charge of Murder

VINELAND, N. J., Nov. 18.—The arrest last night of Walter Zeller, 15 years old and Cline Wheeler, his 20-year-old companion, charged with the murder of William Read, the grandfather of Zeller, last Friday night, has caused a sensation. Zeller has confessed to the murder plot but seeks to lay the actual commission of the crime on Wheeler. Herbert Grigg, another 19-year-old boy, who is implicated in the confession, disappeared from his father's farm yesterday and has not been seen in this vicinity since. The other two boys admit the motive was robbery.

Read was 70 years old and quite wealthy. He lived with his son-in-law, William Cooper, Zeller is a son of Mrs. Cooper by her first husband. The aged man was found dead in his room here Saturday morning, he having been shot and beaten. Much of the money

The municipal primaries, held yesterday, proved the most interesting and most largely attended in many years, while the results showed some remarkable surprises to which hundreds found it difficult to reconcile themselves.

The most remarkable feature of the primaries was the vote of Police Officer George H. Brown, the winning republican candidate and erstwhile "joke" candidate. While bets were freely offered that he would receive 1000 votes, and the more sanguine bet the short end on his nomination and even chanced a few even bets, but none dreamed that Mr. Brown would not only receive the nomination but would carry every one of the 27 precincts of the city; poll over 2900 votes more than his nearest opponent and poll over 1800 votes more than the combined vote of his three opponents. That's what happened to Brown!

EXTRA
CHINESE CAPITOLThe Situation Has Shown No
Change Today

PEKIN, Nov. 18.—The situation today shows no material change as over yesterday but rumors are rife of political jealousies at the palace. Considerable adverse comment has been aroused by the fact that Prince Chun the regent is ignoring the Chinese in announcing the composition of the committees that are to have the funeral obsequies of the late emperor and empress in hand. The only two Chinese appointees are Yuan Zhi Kai and Liu Chun Lin; the rest are Manchus. The selection of Prince Pu Lun and Chen Pi to go to the western tombs and select the site for the mausoleum of Kwang Su, the late emperor, has been received with dissatisfaction principally because Prince Pu Lun was at one time active in the intrigues to secure the throne for himself. Chen Pi is a former Boxer and anti-foreign in his sentiments. He owes his position and power to the eunuchs.

The acts of Prince Chun are clothed with full imperial authority and show that he is jealous of the Manchou prerogatives and guards them sedulously. His edicts show clearly the literary style of Chang Chi-Tung, a member of the grand council, but otherwise Chang Chi-Tung is not active in affairs of state and appears to have been eclipsed.

It is reported that Prince Ching, president of the board of foreign affairs, has suffered physical collapse on account of his exertions and the excitement of the past few days. His political position is precarious and it is believed that his career is practically at an end.

The fourteen native banks that suspended payment a few days ago today were reopened and began to pay out money from funds supplied for the purpose of tiding over the panic. The payments are to continue for a period of five days.

COUNT BONI SUES

He Wants the Custody of His Children

PARIS, Nov. 18.—The hearing of the suit brought by Count Boni Castellane against Princess Helle de Sagan, formerly his wife, for the custody of his three children, was today postponed until Nov. 25. This action was taken at the request of Albert Clemenceau, counsel for the princess, who announced that he had just entered the case, and that it was impossible for him to proceed today. M. Bonnet, the count's lawyer, did not oppose the request of M. Clemenceau for postponement, but he formally petitioned the court to place the children in the care of the Marquise de Castellane, mother of Count Boni, pending a settlement of the case on the ground that they were uncomfortable and ill in the house of their mother, and because it was desirable that they should escape the atmosphere, unhealthful morally and physically, which he alleged pervaded the home of the mother. The court ruled that it could not pass upon this question today, and the entire matter went over for a week.

Count de Castellane was present in court.

RAILROAD ASSOCIATION

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—The American Railroad Association meets here today. LAST THURSDAY WAS A BIG DAY IN THE LOWELL STORES. MAKE TOMORROW A BETTER DAY.

FINE PROGRAM

ARRANGED BY ST. PATRICK'S SANCTUARY CHOIR

The entertainment and dance to be held in Associate hall this evening by the Sanctuary choir of St. Patrick's church promises to eclipse anything in the city. The choir, both church and secular, will alone be worth the price of admission. This will be the first time that a recital of the church music, prescribed by the Pope to be used in the Catholic churches, has been held in this city. The choir will sing several hymns written in the modes of Gregorian, Palestrina and the Solenne editions.

The Sanctuary choir of this church has made a reputation for its rendition of the most difficult pieces of church music in accordance with the new edict, that may well be envied by the sanctuary choirs of the city and the state. In connection with the recital the dramatic club will present the "Amannensis," a comedy in two acts that will certainly captivate the audience. This is the first adventure of the members of the club in comedy work, having confined themselves in the past to straight drama, in which branch of stage work they have several times scored complete successes.

During the waits between the acts and after the production the soloists of the choir will render several solos, compositions of the famous composers. After the entertainment dancing will be held until midnight. The Calumet orchestra will be present and furnish music for dancing.

BALLOON MADE ASCENT

LONDON, Nov. 18.—The mammoth balloon owned by the Daily Graphic ascended from here this forenoon, and will attempt to reach Siberia and break long distance records. The aeronauts on board are Mr. Gaudron and Captain Maitland, and they are accompanied by a newspaper man named C. Turner. They expect to reach Belgium this afternoon and passing over Germany they count on being over Russia on Thursday. The plan is to descend in Siberia on Friday. The success of the voyage yesterday depends upon the air currents over Europe continuing in the direction they are blowing at present.

SEA CAPTAIN HELD

On Charge of Smuggling Chinese Immigrants

BOSTON, Nov. 18.—Captain Harvey [unclear] in Somerville, were held by the [unclear] of East Boston and Philip [unclear] United States grand jury today at the [unclear] of a Boston florist, with a [unclear] conclusion of a hearing on a charge of [unclear].

conspiracy to smuggle Chinese immigrants into the United States in violation of the immigration laws.

The government alleges that Daly and Springer were at the head of a plan to bring the Chinese into the United States from Mexico on the schooner Freddie W. Alton, which they chartered ostensibly for a fishing trip to Labrador.

Mr. George Honocks, of Reading, formerly of Lowell, will have a strong independent baseball team in the field again during the season of 1909.

NOT GOING TO CHINA
WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—The navy department today announced that there is absolutely no truth in the reports that the Philippine squadron is prepared to go to China ports. Long ago the squadron was given instructions to keep away from the battleship fleet and they will not meet at Manila. It is stated here that in the event of the Philippine fleet moving to China there would be no purpose of maintaining any mystery on the subject and that any such order would be made public at once.

OLD HORSE CASE

Lower Court's Finding Not Sustained

On June 28, 1907, Harry W. Parker sold a horse to George W. Whitney for the sum of $40. Examination of the horse a few days later by Dr. Sherman disclosed the fact that the horse was suffering from glanders and it was shot by order of Dr. Sherman.

Mr. Whitney brought suit to recover the value of the horse, claiming that Parker told him the horse did not have glanders but that he had been poisoned by Paris green. The case was tried in police court and a judgment given in favor of the defendant. An appeal was taken and today the case was tried before a jury and the jury found for the plaintiff in the sum of $40. W. A. Hogan for Whitney and W. H. Bent for the defendant.

CATHOLIC NOTES

At the Immaculate Conception church, on Sunday morning next, there will be quarterly communion of the Children of Mary and Immaculate Conception sodalities.

There will be a meeting and drill of the O. M. I. Cadets this evening.

The many friends of the highly beloved pastor of the Sacred Heart church, Rev. T. Wade Smith, O. M. I., are pleased to see him about again having nearly recovered from the effects of his recent accidental injury. Notwithstanding that he is still lame, Rev. Fr. Smith, is performing his pastoral duties and on Sunday morning last, at 8 o'clock celebrated his first mass in the Sacred Heart church, since leaving St. John's hospital.

There will be coal collections in some of the Lowell Catholic churches on Sunday next at all the masses.

The C. Y. M. I. of St. Patrick's parish, will, with a trained chorus of 50 voices present on Friday night next in Associate hall, the Japanese operetta "A Trip to Tokyo."

NATIONAL MUNICIPAL LEAGUE

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 18.—With R. Fulton Cutting of New York, chairman of the Citizens' union, presiding, the National Municipal league began today's session with an extended discussion on "Municipal Work, or, Better Government." Robert Pinkard of Buffalo read the principal paper and the balance of the session was taken up with ten-minute addresses discussing the paper.

A busy morning session was before the American Civic association. The election of officers, reports from the departments of organization and a number of addresses were on the program.

WAS DISMASTED GRAND REVIEW

Fishing Schooner Met With Accident

BOSTON, Nov. 18.—The fishing schooner Washakie, which was completely dismasted in the Narrows last night through a collision with the inland bound bark Silcon, in which the latter had her foremast carried away, was towed up to the city today for repairs. The Silcon remained at quarantine.

According to the captain of the Silcon his vessel was inward bound with 150,000 feet of lumber from Carrabelle, Fla. She was in tow of the tug Newport and met the Washakie outward bound under sail. The fisherman struck the bark on the starboard bow and the low carried away the fore rigging, which caused the foremast to fall over the fisherman.

There was tried before Judge Gaskill in the superior court, yesterday, the case of John F. Walsh against Samuel Levovich. It was an action to recover for damages to an automobile and judgment in the sum of $1565 was, today, awarded the plaintiff, W. A. Hogan for the plaintiff and Joseph Levovich for the defendant.

Of Vessels of the Japanese Fleet

KOBE, Japan, Nov. 18.—The fighting fleet of Japan comprising 110 vessels exclusive of submarines passed to review before the emperor today. The weather was perfect.

Embarking on the battleship Asama the emperor was welcomed by Admiral Togo and the other admirals of the fleet. The Asama with Admiral Togo on the bridge steamed slowly between the lines of warships with every band playing the national anthem. Togo at the emperor's side adorted each, pointing out the ships captured from Russia during the Russo-Japanese war. The review was concluded shortly before noon and as the emperor left the flagship the entire fleet united in a thunderous salute. Prior to his departure for the shore the emperor congratulated the navy on its great improvement.

JUDGE LORING

Issued an Injunction Order Today

BOSTON, Nov. 18.—Judge Loring in the supreme court today granted an injunction restraining members of all labor unions from interfering with the work of building the registry of deeds and a high school in Salem, now being conducted by Woodbury & Leighton, whose men struck a few days ago. The injunction applies also to sympathetic strikes and the decree confirms the recent decision of a full court in the labor case.

On the democratic side the partisans of Messrs. Cummings and Casey throughout the day cried: "Cummings and Brown," or "Casey and Brown," but toward evening the Casey contingent prevailed and the result was not a matter of doubt after the close of the polls. Messrs. Cummings and Casey were not in the running at all. Mr. Cummings receiving more votes than both together, while Mr. Casey defeated Mr. Cummings by a substantial plurality of 700 votes. John James H. McKinley received only a few more votes than Mr. Dwyer and his wife. In the caucuses came as a tremendous surprise to his friends in both parties. It was said of both Messrs. Cummings and Casey, "If he can get by in the caucuses he will win at the polls."

The result of the contest for purchasing agent on the democratic side was not unexpected, for while Mr. Foye made a valiant fight and worked hard, in Mr. Cosgrove he had one of the best vote getters in Lowell to contend against. Mr. Cosgrove got a very substantial plurality. Of course Mr. MacKenzie had no opposition in the caucuses and received a great majority over Mr. McKim.

The four present democratic members of the board of aldermen were renominated while Aldermen Owen Brennan received the highest vote cast for any candidate in the caucuses, even beating the phenomenal vote of Candidate Brown.

Messrs. Connors and Curtin are ex-aldermen. Mr. Gallagher is an ex-alderman. Charles J. Burns is a popular Centralville temperance artist and popular "Tommy" McDermott, the well known undertaker and manager of the vast real estate interest of Jas. H. McDermott, was the fifth man on the democratic ticket. Of the nine republican candidates for aldermen eight have had previous experience at City Hall. Messrs. Read, Clancy and Gray are members of the present board of aldermen. Mr. Badger was formerly an alderman and for a time acting Mayor. Mr. Stevens is president of the common council and Messrs. Adams, Dexter and Wainwright are members of the common council. John Turner the only novice is the well known manufacturer and lover of sports.

At City Hall

The returns were received at City Hall by an immense throng. As usual the counters in ward seven got their returns in first, shortly after 11 o'clock and when it was found that Brown had carried the Pawtucketville precinct in which both he and Mr. McKinley reside, the last man to hold out that Brown was a "joke" threw up his hands in despair. Of course ward three was the lazy ward and was the last to come, and predict two, the banner precinct of the city for taking its time, did not reach City Hall until 4:45 this morning.

The common council and school board contests showed some surprises notably the defeat of Mr. Wiggin in ward three. In ward one Councilman Aleck MacKenzie, who was confined to his home throughout the campaign, was renominated by a good vote, his brother John conducting his campaign affairs while he was away. Councilman Cotter, who was out of town during the campaign was defeated in ward two. In ward five two candidates, Messrs. Sullivan and Tracey, are tied for the third place and a second count will be necessary. It was a noticeable fact, however, that in about all the other contests the results were so clearly defined as to preclude the idea of recounts.

Splendid For Your Kidneys; Also Makes Rheumatism Go

There are more cases of kidney trouble here now than ever before, while recent reports show that more people succumb each year to some form of kidney disease than any other cause.

When there is sickness, examine the urine. Rheumatism is only a symptom of kidney trouble. It is nothing more or less than excessive uric acid in the blood, which the sluggish, inactive kidneys have failed to sift out, leaving it to decompose and settle about the joints and muscles, causing intense suffering; frequently resulting in deformity; often reaching the heart, when death ensues.

Drugs across the back, frequent painful and suppressed urination and other symptoms of weak bladder, are not the only signs of kidney trouble; many cases of stomach disease, headache, pain in the heart, inactive liver,

TESTIMONY IS HEARD

In Case of Men Charged With Smuggling Chinese

BOSTON, Nov. 18.—Testimony to the effect that Captain Harvey Daly of East Boston, who with Philip M. Springer is under arrest in connection with the alleged conspiracy to smuggle Chinese into the United States in violation of the immigration laws, had offered the witness from $15,000 to $25,000 to participate in the plan, was given by Freeman Hardy in the hearing before U. S. Commissioner William Hayes Tuesday. Hardy is secretary of the Fishing Masters' association and has an office on Long wharf. He said that last spring Daly came into his office and asked him to enter into the plan to smuggle Chinese into the United States. Hardy said that the profits were large. He said if Harvey would give supercargo and get a good navigator for captain, he would give him $15,000 to divide with his captain if they went to New England for the Chinese, and $25,000 if they went to Mexico. He said that the Chinese could be landed in Massachusetts bay according to the witness, but was willing to allow the captain of the expedition to pick out the landing place. Hardy said he declined the offer. Captain John Trainer of Bath, Me., owner of the schooner Freddie Alton, who it was alleged was the craft on which the Chinese were to be brought into the country, testified as to the appearance of the vessel when it was chartered by Daly and Springer. He said that although the prisoners told him they were going to Labrador on a fishing trip there were no signs of tackle on board. The case was continued till tomorrow.

LARRY TEMPLE

Knocked Out Joe Walcott in 10th Round

BOSTON, Nov. 18.—Joe Walcott, famed the world over as the Barbadoes Demon, winner of hundreds of battles, at one time the greatest fighting machine in action under the Queensbury code, a dwarf who whipped giants with ease, last night tasted decisive defeat for the first time in his career when he was practically knocked out by Larry Temple in the tenth round at the Armory A. A. At the time that Temple sent in the hard left to the stomach, followed by the right to the jaw, that toppled Walcott to the canvas, there remained but eight seconds to the limit of the contest.

Men were there who had seen Walcott at his best, and had seen him whip some of the best pugilists the ring had ever known, and these men, remembering only the wonderful deeds of the past, cheered Walcott in defeat as heartily as they had when he walked from the ring a victor. The bout had been rather uninteresting throughout, and there was a general feeling that neither of the veterans was trying his best. This feeling was so strong throughout the audience at one stage of the bout that there was considerable hissing.

In the main event Hugh F. Clavin, known as Young Ernie of Philadelphia and Eddie Murphy of South Boston went ten fives rounds to a draw, according to the referee's verdict. The partisans of the South Boston man approved the finding, but the majority of the spectators believed Ernie had the better of matters in all but the last round, and that the visitor was entitled to the credit of a win.

This battle was fast from start to finish. Murphy was the more rugged of the pair, but he was plainly ill at ease in the first two rounds, due to his anxiety to make a good showing on his first appearance hereabouts as a star. Ernie's dazzling speed and puzzling left hand was too much of a combination for Murphy until the latter got settled. Eddie began to show up well after the close to Ernie and a series of punches. At this style of milling Murphy was good, but the superior blocking and expertness of Ernie counted strongly in his favor and he was able to discount the best Murphy could offer.

The twelfth round found Murphy mixing things up in willing style and having a shade the better of the going. In the opening bout, which was also of ten rounds, Willie Williams of South Boston got the verdict after a rather slow bout, in which Decker failed to live up to his record.

POLICE BOARD

Held a Meeting Behind Closed Doors

The board of police held a rather lengthy as well as important meeting this morning, but at the conclusion of the session shortly before noon the commissioners declared that nothing of importance had transpired. Supl. William B. Moffatt of the police department was closeted with the commissioners for some little time and it is understood that the meeting took the form of an indignation meeting. The different members were questioned by a representative of The Sun, but all were silent as to the business.

FOOT INJURED

Charles James, aged about 35 years, residing at 55 Cushing street, met with a mishap this morning at 7.30 o'clock, while at work at the Lowell Textile mills on West Adams street. He was engaged in his duties as elevator man, at the mills, when his left foot was caught in the elevator and flooring crushing the instep badly. He was removed to the Lowell hospital in an ambulance.

MONEY REFUNDED IF NOT SATISFACTORY

CASEY HONORED

Friends Conveyed Him to His Home

A great crowd assembled in front of The Sun office last night to hear the returns from the different precincts of the city.

The Sun had men stationed in every polling booth, and as fast as each block of fifty votes was counted, the result was telephoned to The Sun office and megaphoned, so that the waiting crowd was informed of the standing of the candidates as the count progressed.

When it became evident that Casey and Brown had won out there was great enthusiasm and later on a large number of Casey's supporters engaged a carriage and had it driven to the headquarters of the candidate, in Central street. There were gathered more than one thousand friends of the democratic nominee and they insisted on paying a tribute to the candidate. They un hitched the horses and despite the protest of Mr. Casey, they insisted on drawing him to his home in Summer street. At Tower's Corner, on the way to the candidate's home, there was a stop and Mr. Casey was obliged to make a speech. Then when he arrived at his home there was another outburst of enthusiasm and again Mr. Casey was obliged to respond to calls for a speech. When Mr. Casey reached his home he was greeted by his mother and there he had a few more words to say to his friends before he retired. Mr. Casey announced that his headquarters will be open until the close of the municipal campaign and he invited all to meet him there and discuss campaign affairs.

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL

Mrs. Lizzie M. Coolidge, ex-governor of Bay State colony, 11, U. O. P. F., attended the memorial service of the Essex colony of Lawrence last night. There were also members present from the Empire colony, 12, of this city. It was a very impressive service and largely attended.

B. F. Butler W. R. C. No. 75, had its annual inspection last night, the inspecting officer being Mrs. Henrietta Crosby of Corps 55, Lawrence. Supper was served to about 35 members and friends previous to the meeting. Mrs. Crosby made but very few corrections and expressed herself as well pleased with the ritualistic work as performed by the corps.

The Betsy Ross circle, No. 24, held its regular meeting last night in Wyman's Exchange, in Post 185 hall. A supper was held before the meeting and a large number was present and enjoyed the social hour. Routine business was transacted and an invitation was accepted to attend the memorial services of the Wauwatash command, No. 10, U. V. U., at the Eliot church, Sunday evening, Nov. 29th, at 7 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

On Monday Mr. Hale lunched with the president at the White House and they discussed Boston politics, including Mr. Hale's ambition to enter the board of aldermen. Monday afternoon Mr. Roosevelt permitted the Washington correspondents to announce that, having talked politics with Mr. Hale, the president considered it an excellent thing for the city of Boston that a young man of Mr. Hale's ability and ideals had become interested in the municipal management.

REFORM CLUB

The members of the Lowell Reform club held a very interesting open meeting last night. President Forbes in the chair. The members old and young were called upon for speeches and the oratory displayed by the different members proved to be a rare treat.

The principal speaker of the evening was President W. M. Bowers of the corporation who spoke in part as follows: "Boys, I don't like to hear so much croaking. It is not wholesome to listen to. Some men are like the big-eyed owl in the night; they are always mourning for bats, vermin and mice. They never look for noble game. They cannot see they do not want to see, a good quality in any man. They never fail to find a bad one. If a man enters the political arena, they at once say he is in it for graft; he is looking for a rake-off. Now, the sooner we get this poison out of our minds, the better for all. Many good men are being battered for tonight; let us hope the best will be nominated."

GARVEY WINS

The Court Decides That He Must Be Paid

Because the answer made by Thomas F. Garvey, who was discharged by the board of health over a year ago, to the charges of the board, was not included in the board's record of the case, Mr. Garvey, unless the supreme court overrules, will recover wages at the rate of $24.56 a week from July 17, 1907, to the present time.

Mr. Garvey's case opened before last year, and the present suit is for wages from that time to the present. Francis W. and Stanley E. Quinlan for the defendant; City Solicitor Hill for the city.

The plaintiff charged that he was discharged because of his refusal to perform certain political services. He alleged that the board did not use its discretion, but that his discharge was due to a spirit of revenge.

No witnesses were called in the case today. Counsel for the defendant asked that a complete record of the board of health concerning the case be submitted as provided by law, and this is where the board stubbed its toe. The records were on hand, both in original and typewritten form, but there was one thing that the records did not contain, and that was Mr. Garvey's answer to the charges of the board.

City Solicitor Hill was very much surprised to discover that the answer was not made part of the records, and said that it must be somewhere in the possession of the board.

Because of the absence of the letter, and the incompleteness of the record, Judge Gaskill found for the plaintiff. Exceptions were taken and the case will go to the supreme court in the usual way.

The suit covered up to July 17, 1907. The suit covered up to July 17, 1907. The suit covered up to July 17, 1907.

BOWLING GAMES

MARY A. SMITH GRANTED DE-CREE NISI

Husband Left Her Because She Would Not Change Her Religion—Case Involving Tremont House Property Settled

A decree nisi was granted Susie E. McLellan of Cambridge by Judge Gaskill in this city yesterday. She testified that at one time she brought a petition for separate support and while that case was pending she learned that her husband had another wife living, wife number one. The court granted the decree and instructed the clerk to notify the district attorney of the circumstances.

Mary A. Smith, wife of William C. Smith, was granted a decree nisi with custody of child. She said that because she wouldn't give up her church, she being a Catholic and her husband a Protestant, her husband left her on three different occasions. He went away for the third time in 1903 and never returned.

The court granted the decree, and instructed the clerk to notify the district attorney of the circumstances.

Other libels in which the libellees were defaulted, were as follows:
Jennie Rickaby of Marlboro vs. Albert Rickaby. The libellant testified that her husband was intoxicated every Saturday night and Sunday since their marriage, and they have three children.

Elizabeth J. Rose of Malden vs. Geo. H. Rose. Mrs. Rose said that her husband used to get drunk and abuse her, and that on one occasion he kicked a dish of boiling water that she was carrying, so that the water was spilled on her hands, scalding them. At last he told her one day that he intended to kill her; that she would be dead the next day at that hour. Then she got scared and left him.

Case Was Settled

A settlement was made yesterday in the case of Demarcus vs. Hussion. The title to the so-called Tremont house property was involved. Counsel in the case held a conference with Judge White, and an adjustment satisfactory to all concerned was agreed upon.

Haverhill's Mayor Gets Another Nomination

HAVERHILL, Nov. 18.—Edward H. Moulton and Mayor Roswell L. Wood yesterday qualified in a seven-cornered primary fight under the new Des Moines charter recently adopted and became mayoralty candidates for the election on Dec. 17.

Mayor Wood, five times successful against bitter fights in the past, won over Albert L. Bartlett, former superintendent of schools, by 125 votes.

The interest has been intense, and the primaries of yesterday will go down in history of the city as the "most remarkable" ever held. There were 6405 votes, exclusive of blanks, cast for the head of the ticket. In the state election there were cast for president but 6091 or 314 less. Of those cast yesterday Mr. Moulton received 2027, Mayor Wood 1623, and Mr. Bartlett 1499. Mr. Wood therefore beat Mr. Bartlett by 124 votes.

Under the law as now adopted and sustained by the supreme court, two men qualify for mayoralty, and eight aldermen for four places. Defeated candidates may make further effort for political victory only by using stickers. The salary of the mayor will be $2500 and that of the aldermen $1800.

Mayor Wood is an auctioneer and horse trader. Mr. Moulton has been mayor once and alderman twice, and is the largest meat and provision dealer in Haverhill and one of the owners of an independent abattoir in competition with the beef trust.

TEXTILE NOTES

Interesting Items From
Mill Centers

MOHAWK, N. Y., Nov. 18.—It is expected that another dividend of 10 per cent. will be paid by the trustees of the bankrupt Mohawk Valley Knitting Mill, following the report of the receivers, John B. Wild and R. E. Steele. This will make a total dividend of 45 cents paid to creditors from the assets of the corporation. It is also expected that another 15 per cent. will be received from the estates of the directors of the company who were all thrown into bankruptcy. This will make a dividend of about 60 cents on a dollar, which will be paid to residents of the Mohawk Valley, who loaned thousands of dollars to the bankrupt company. It is understood that the directors of the company recently offered to settle with the creditors for $15,000 which would have enabled the trustees to pay a dividend of about 30 cents from the directors' estates. This offer was turned down by the creditors, and it is believed that now not to exceed 50 cents on the dollar will be received from this source. Those in charge of the bankrupt estate hope to have the matters all cleared up by Jan. 1.

KNITTING MILL BUSY
MANCHESTER, Conn., Nov. 18.—The business boom has struck Manchester, and the Manchester Green mill of the Clanton Knitting Co. has started on overtime to 9 o'clock at night. The mill, like many others in the country, has been affected by the business depression, and for six weeks recently the entire plant was closed down. A big order was placed just before election with the understanding that it was to be filled if Taft was elected, but to be countermanded if he was defeated. Now to all orders, the plant is working on a 13-hour schedule.

EAGLE SILK MILL ADDITION
SHAMOKIN, Pa., Nov. 18.—Eagle Brothers, conducting a silk mill here, have issued orders to the Shamokin Lumber Co. to proceed at once on a $20,000 extension to the mill building near Edgewood Park. Twenty-five additional carpenters will be hired by the lumber company to start the mill order, while the company will build a number of new houses in various portions of the town.

BIRTHDAY PARTY
Last evening a merry party gathered at the home of Mrs. Minnie Lear, 352 Lincoln street, to congratulate her on the anniversary of her birth. She received many costly presents. Miss Della Lear entertained at the piano, and solos were sung by Miss Edna Lear and Miss Bernice Lear. The Misses Bertha and Grace Gordon gave a pretty exhibition of dancing.

WIDOWED DUCHESS TO
WHOM A SON IS BORN

PARIS, Nov. 18.—News of the birth of a son to the widowed young Duchess de Chaumes in Paris was received in America through a cable dispatch from her father, Theodore P. Shonts. The Duke de Chaumes and Miss Shonts were married in New York on Feb. 15, 1908 and went immediately to Paris. There the duke died suddenly on April 23, six weeks after the wedding. The posthumous boy is heir to his father's ancient title, he inherits the Chateau de Dampiere and in the natural course will inherit the fortune his mother will receive from her parents.

TEWKSBURY
At the home of Mrs. George D. Foristall in Tewksbury Centre, yesterday afternoon, the Ladies' Aid society of the Congregational church of that town met and voted to hold the annual Christmas sale the second Wednesday in December.

Supper committee—Miss Ada Bridges, Mrs. Rufo and Mrs. Joel Phelps.

BILLERICA

In the Mathew hall, North Billerica, last night, there was a largely attended meeting of the Mathew Total Abstinence society of that place. Ten candidates were admitted to the organization and seven names were proposed for membership. A considerable amount of routine business was transacted during the session. The anniversary committee met after the regular meeting and perfected arrangements for the 21st anniversary of the society, which takes place in Thomas Talbot Memorial hall next Saturday evening. This popular temperance organization will open its social season Wednesday evening, Nov. 25, with a grand social function in Thomas Talbot Memorial hall.

Grand Regent John J. Hogan and several other well known Arcadians will deliver addresses at the conclusion of the regular meeting of North Billerica council, No. 1323, R. A., in Mathew hall this evening. The public is invited to attend the exercises. A collation will be served.
Tomorrow evening there will be a special meeting of Billerica grange, for the purpose of conferring the first and second degrees on a class of candidates. The next regular meeting, which would come on Thanksgiving, is postponed to Dec. 2.

NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY

SUIT IS ENTERED

Against the Montreal Peat Company

Dr. David S. Bellemur of this city has entered suit against the Montreal Peat Gas and Coal Company, of Montreal, for about $4000. At a meeting of the directors of the company in Montreal about a year ago Dr. Bellemur was chosen vice president of the company.

The company organized about two years ago in Montreal for the exploitation of extensive peat beds in St. Bonaventure, Que., and the making of coal and illuminating gas out of the peat at a low cost of production.

Other suits against the company are said to be contemplated by Lowell shareholders. Among them are Stephen Rochette, Octave Lamontagne, O. E. LeDoux and Alfred Germain, who invested amounts varying from $150 to $500.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC

A complete change of bill, both vaudeville and motion pictures, will be given at the academy tomorrow, but there is still an opportunity to see the excellent program of the first three days, including "The Mountaineer's Revenge," one of the most interesting motion pictures ever seen in Lowell, and one that depicts on the films a pretty little melodrama abounding in deep heart interest. The other pictures are "Maple Sugar," a series which shows the manufacture of the toothsome article from the time that the tree is tapped until the product is served before a merry gathering, and also "The Unselfish Guest," "The Flag-Around," and "The Duke's Great Joke," all new and up-to-date films, of which there are three complete rolls. The vaudeville bill includes Miss May Bagshaw in illustrated songs, the Zisocchia Bros. in a novelty comedy musical act, the York Herbert trio in a new comedy sketch, and Billy Kinnah, the mad juggler. These performers will be seen for the last time this evening for they close their engagement tonight in accordance with the mid-week change policy of the management. The performances run from

2 to 5 and from 7 to 10, and the price of admission is only 10 cents; seats being free to all.

THEATRE VOYONS

"The Cotton Industry" at the Theatre Voyons today is one of the most instructive and at the same time interesting pictures that has been shown in a long time. Almost every step in the cotton industry, from the field to the store, is shown, and unusually well, too. Especially interesting are the views taken in a southern cotton mill and the pictures of the negroes in the fields picking the cotton. "Blood Will Tell" is an interesting dramatic story of the theft of a large sum of money. "He Who Laughs Last Laughs Best" is a crackjack comedy. The young lovers in the picture are greatly bothered by an old maid aunt of the young lady, and in her efforts to prevent an elopement the aunt dresses in her niece's clothes and goes to meet the hero in her stead.

A PENNY SAVED IS A PENNY EARNED. READ THE THURSDAY BARGAIN DAY OFFERINGS IN TODAY'S SUN.

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

"Alry Lillian Russell in her celebrated racing play, "Wildfire," was the attraction at the Opera House last evening, and, as might be expected, the house was packed, for who wouldn't go to see Lillian even if she were not at the head of a most pleasing play? That a woman is as old as she looks was never more strikingly exemplified than in the case of Lillian Russell, for though she has been a star since—well, for a long time, she still retains her wondrous beauty and grace, and arrayed in the most captivating of director's gowns last evening she was as charming as of yore. "Wildfire" was presented here last season to another large house, and it is a good bet that surely half of those who went last year went again last evening for it is a play that bears repeating, and the star will win us all as long as she chooses to come to Lowell. But then it must not be forgotten that there is another little star in the cast in the person of Will Archie, a diminutive and inimitable comedian, who as "Bud" the stable boy, had the audience in roars. Mr. Archie was with the play last season, as was Miss Annie Buckle, who is most pleasing as the colored waiting maid, Gilbert Douglas as "Bertie Almsworth" was also with the play, but all the others are new but they are all adequate. Sidney Booth is playing "Matt Donovan," the stableman, this season, and he does the character well. The play is finely staged, and will be a winner wherever it goes, not alone because of the presence of Lillian Russell, but because it is possessed of much real merit.

GRACE GEORGE

"Divorçons," the piece in which Grace George scored such a remarkable triumph last season, is now in London and in which she will be seen at the Opera House tonight, is as old theatregoers know, the story of a young woman who was married to a man older than herself and who fancies that her life has been one continual bore. To relieve the monotony she convinces herself that she is in love with a cousin of her husband's, a young officer of military presence, bearing the name of Adhemar de Gratinac. The young officer believes that he is enamoured of his cousin's wife. A new divorce law is before the assembly and they look to this passage as the solution of all their difficulties. The husband divorces the wife, and the husband makes love unawares. At the crucial moment, when Adhemar sends a false report that the divorce law has been passed for the purpose of inducing Cyrienne to visit him in his rooms, the husband hits upon a clever idea. He pretends that he, too, is glad of the divorce and the solution that it affords. Then he begins to make sober comparisons from which even the question of income cannot be excluded. Then she waxes jealous at the idea of a successor. When the husband finally takes his wife out to dine at a restaurant of the demimonde positions are practically reversed. He is in the position of the lover, and the lover in the position of husband—or husband to be. The conclusion is obvious, and the complications leading to the conclusion are matters of stage history and personal laughter.

"A FASCINATING WIDOW"

A theme that has been used by our dramatists from time immemorial and one that seems like good wine to improve with age is the "Widow." In a "Fascinating Widow" by C. T. Dacey, author of "In Old Kentucky," has produced a play which bids fair to surpass his former successes and supply Otis B. Thayer and Gertrude Bondhill with roles that are especially suited to their talents. "A Fascinating Widow" will be seen for the first time at the Opera House on Friday, Nov. 20 for three performances.

LEIGH DELACY

The Thanksgiving week attraction at the Opera House will be Miss Leigh Delacy and company in a repertoire of standard plays. The opening play Monday night will be "The Man on the Box," to be followed by a repertoire of royalty plays. Seats for the engagement go on sale Thursday morning.

HATHAWAY'S THEATRE

"The Queen of the Turf," a serious one-act play, written for Florence Hamilton, the emotional actress, is the special feature underlined at Hathaway's this week. Miss Hamilton, as an actress, is too well known to local theatregoers to need any appreciation of her work. Suffice it to be stated that the role of "Corinne Ardale," in the aforementioned play, is one filled with striking possibilities and that they are fully realized by Miss Hamilton. In her supporting company are J. Frank Burke, an excellent leading man, and Pierce Kingsley, a really finished character actor.

That "real ice" skating act is the talk of the town. Twice daily the ice is manufactured on the stage. Participating in the act are Mrs. Isabel Butler and Edward Bassett, trick and fancy skaters of renown. The act is owned by Tom Butler, the old bicycle rider. J. K. Murray and Miss Clara Lane will please with their singing of grand opera, and also in Irish folk songs. The Reed brothers, comedy gymnasts, the Josselyns, in story of "Ben Hur," Al Lawrence, mimic and impersonator, Coakley and McBride, dancers and jokers, and the Hathaway scope complete the list of attractions. Performances will be given every afternoon and evening during the remainder of the week, with an amateur ice skating contest slated for Friday night.

STAR THEATRE

With a change of moving picture subjects this afternoon and a new talking picture on Thursday afternoon, there is always a varied and interesting program at the Star theatre, and in view of the numerous changes in pictures and excellent entertainment otherwise, the admission price of 6 cents, which entitles the patrons to seats is very small.

The talking picture, "A Daughter of Erin," now being presented, is one of the most interesting films ever shown at this popular playhouse. Thursday's talking picture will be "The Ranchman's Love."

"I've Got to Love Somebody" is a catchy song as there is a liberal response on the part of the audience when the chorus slide is shown. Another song, "After the Rain Comes the Sunshine," is being sung.

A THANKSGIVING DREAM

Mr. Turk: "White or dark meat, children?"

Other Hogs to Come.

There was a sign on the door of the ticket office in the depot at Tarbell of "No Admission" and a native North Carolinian stood about ten feet away and read the sign three or four times over to himself. Then he slowly advanced and opened the door and said: "I want to see the boss of this railroad."

"Didn't you see the sign on the door?" demanded the agent. "I did, but I want to see the boss." "Then go up to Wilmington."

"Too far, and I haven't time. Say, mister, this railroad killed one of my haws yesterday, and I want damages. I've nothing to do with that!" shouted the agent. "File your claim and let it take its course."

"Where do I file?" "Anywhere you want to, but don't come bothering me." "I haven't time to fool around about that haw. He was worth $2, and I want the cash. This ain't no file, but I think I'll help my claim along."

With the words he lunged out a big heavy revolver and pointed it at the agent's head, and the latter turned ten shades whiter as he said: "Well, what are you going to do?" "Collect my haw money."

"I told you to put in a claim." "So you did, and here it is. I claim $2, and I want it in about two minits." "I told you that all claims went to Wilmington," persisted the agent as he tried to get out of range.

"And I told you it was too far and I was in a hurry. It's $2 for my haw or I'll pull trigger!"

A score of passengers had gathered around the door, but no one interfered. The agent hesitated a moment and then handed over $2, with the query: "Do you own many hogs?" "About fifty, sah."

"And all liable to be killed?" "All liable, sah, and I shall hold you responsible for each and every one." "I'll be hanged if you do. I thought I had a soft snap here, but that hog racket beats me, and I'll send in my resignation tonight. Work the next man on your forty-nine remaining hogs!"

THE REASON.

Mrs. B.: "I can't keep track of my neighbors at all any more."
Mr. B.: "Are they moving in and out?"
Mrs. B.: "No, but my friend, Mrs. Gossip, is ill."

Guarding His Dignity.

As a large ocean going steamer was making her way down the Clyde the officer in charge found his passage blocked by a dirty looking empty ballast barge, the only occupant of which was a man sitting smoking a short pipe. Finding that he did not make any effort to get out of the way, the officer shouted to him in true nautical fashion. Taking the pipe from his mouth, the fellow rose and said: "An' is it yerself that's the captain of that ship?"

"No," was the reply, "but I am the chief officer."
"Then talk to your equals," said the Irishman. "I am the captain of this."

A COQUETTE.

He saw a ring upon her hand
Ere he his love had spoken,
And so he asked her if the gem
Could be another's token.

"How can I tell?" the maid replied,
While hope his heart imbued,
"I never let my right hand know
The things my left hand doeth."

OUR HERO.

God bless the man who first invented
Thanksgiving day.
He should be placed, if he were living,
On double pay
And loaded down with Christmas presents.

To fill a dray—
Yes, and as president elected.
Hooryay!

TALKING ALL THE TIME.

"I love to argue."
"Do you, indeed? I never heard you try."

DANGERS OF IT.

It isn't good
To eat too much
Upon Thanksgiving day.
It's nice to feed,
But it is tough
To hear the doctor say:
"Your case is not
A hopeless one.
In bed a week or two
If you will stay
And starve yourself,
I think we'll pull you through."

The turkey may
Be very fine,
The dressing flavored right,
But think about
The awful dreams
When you lie down at night.
Don't strive to load
Up with so much
That when you doze away
You'll dream about
Your sins and such
And spoil Thanksgiving day.

So only eat
A bird or two,
A barrel full of sauce,
Some dressing and
Such other things
As you may run across,
And take a chance
On being sick
And having dreams run queer,
Because, you know,
Thanksgiving comes
Not over once a year.

Star Gazing by Lovers.

They were young and romantic, and, although the minute hand was pointing at 12 o'clock, they stood upon the porch gazing at the stars.
"That's Jupiter, dear, isn't it?" she murmured.
"Yes, pet; and that is Sirius," he replied, pointing to another star.
"Are you serious?" she roared.
He kissed her. Then, pointing upward, he said:
"That's Mars, dove."
"And that's pa's," she whispered as a footstep sounded inside.
And if the young man hadn't "scooted" he would have seen those stars that he ever dreamed of.

FOUR AGES.

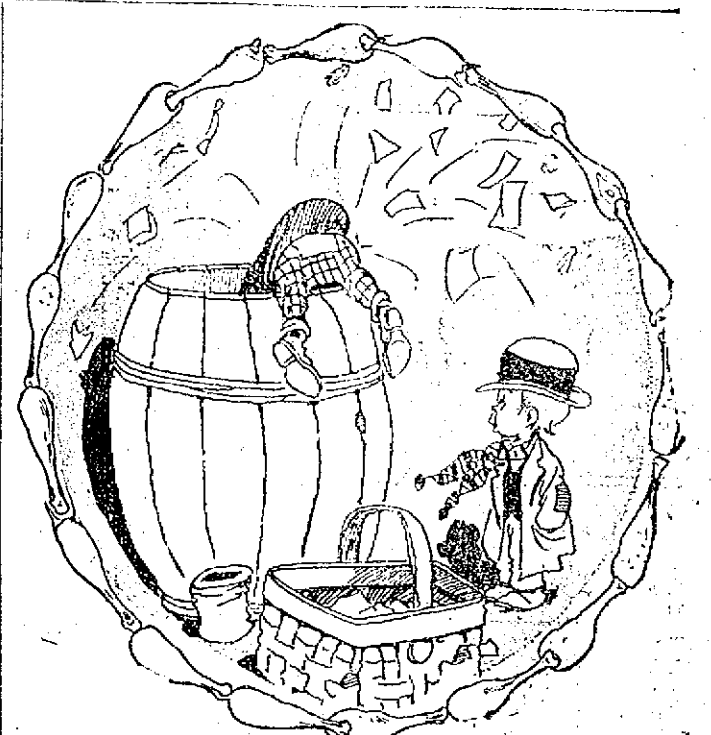

The woolly dog in babyhood
Delights our infant mind,
And then in boyhood's joyful days
The yaller pup we find.
Next from her father's bulldog fierce
We haste with speed increased;
Then later, settled and sedate,
We own just such a beast.

HER SHARE IN IT.

Helen—Yes, the new play is quite successful. By the way, my friend Miss Padden made considerable money out of it.
Grace—Oh, did she write it?
Helen—Write it? Oh, no; she's the modiste who made all the gowns for the leading lady!

LONG LOVE.

"They tell me she was quite a hand to draw a long bow."
"Yes; the beau she drew was a six footer."

CHEAP SKATES!

"Any turkey, Bill?"
"Naw! The folks in dis house must be cheap skates!"

HEARTLESS.

"Come, I want you to settle up."
"Why, man, don't you see I am all run down?"

Through With Poker.

"What's poker?" echoed Uncle Rastus and he turned on the young man who had innocently asked the question. "Say, boy, you jest percolate de consanguinity and don't nebbber fool around wid no game of poker. If it hadn't been for de game of poker I'd have had a brick house and fo'teen mews to console my ole age."

"But how does dey play de game?" persisted the young man.
"How does dey? Well, sah, poker am played wid keards. You deal out five and look mighty wise while you am dealin' it. If you don't like what you git you frow 'em away and call for some mo'. Den you disklair dat you has three aces in your hand, and your heart jumps right into your mou't. You has got $10 in your pocket, and you on your hand. De odder party am fool 'nuk to batt in. He sees you and goes ten better. You don't want to be riz out of de game, and you do want to take a fall outer dat man, and so you put up your watch, your dimun pin, your dawg, your mew and your wheelbarrow. Dat odder chap am only bluffin', but you am dar to stay."

"How kin you tell dat he am only bluffin'?"
"You have what dey calls a hunch. He sees you till dar am nuffin' mo' to put up on either side, and den you call his hand and start to rake in de pot."

"And sunthin' happens?"
"Sunthin' does, young man. Dat's whar de sagacity of de cumulashun comes in. Three aces order rake in dat pot, but de odder party happens to have fo' kings and you don't rake. You am dun cleaned out—knocked down—sent to de porchouse for de rest of your days."

"And so you don't play poker no mo'?"
"Not any for me, sah. If I had my life to lib ober again I might tackle cyclones, whirlwinds, airthquakes, and poshiv steves, but you kin jest gamble dat de pomposity of de cumblashun wouldn't elucidate dis individual to perambulate around wid no game of poker."

YAWNING EVERYWHERE.

The reason why our cash is shy
And bank accounts are thin—
There are too many slots around
To drop a nickel in.

THANKSGIVING AT THE JOHNSING HOME.

Deacon Johnsing: "Now, who wants a drumstick?"

Deacon Johnsing: "What yo' fink dis turkey am—a whole drum corps?"

Easily Settled.

"Speaking of accommodating hotel clerks," remarked a Portland commercial traveler, "the best I ever saw was in a town near Bangor. I reached the hotel late in the evening and was assigned to a pretty, tidy looking room. Just before I retired I heard a scampering under the bed and looked under, expecting to see a burglar. Instead I saw a couple of large rats just escapin' into their hole. I dressed and went down to the office and put in a big kick. The clerk was as serene as a summer's breeze."

"I'll fix that all right, sir," he said. "Front! Take a cat to 23 at once."

TWIN MARKS.

"Death loves a shining mark."
"Yes, and the poor doctors hate to see him go, losing thereby an easy mark."

PROVISIONAL.

"Are you fond of change?"
"Yes, unless I can get it in larger amounts."

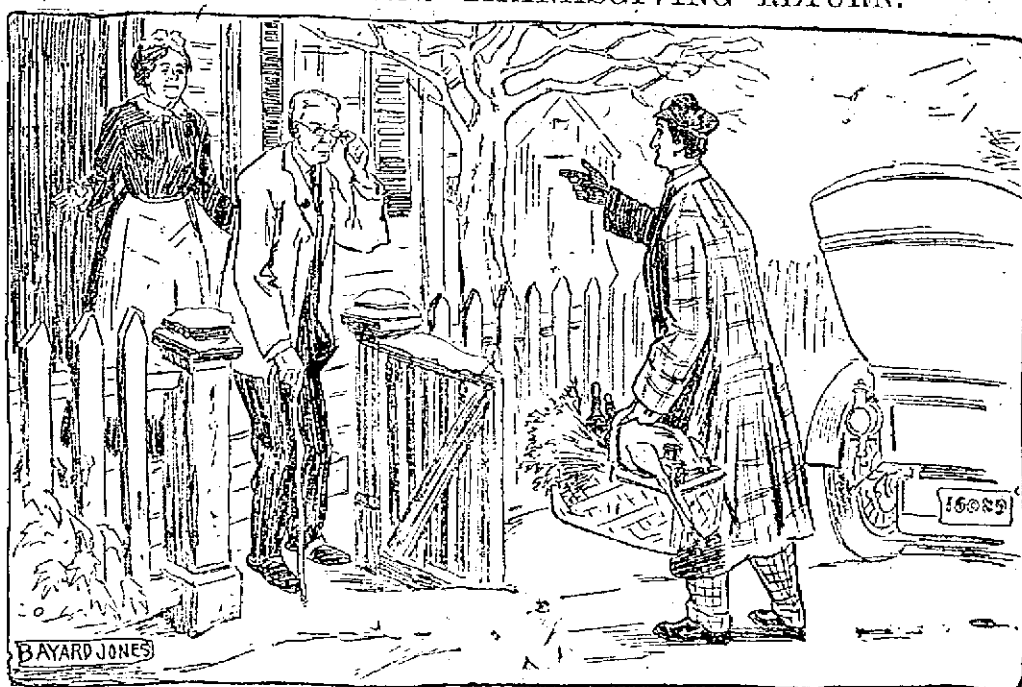

GOOD ADVICE.

"I have found my ideal."
"Then lose him immediately if you would continue happy."

LOOKS THAT WAY.

"The world owes me a living."
"Well, I should say that the debt is outlawed by this time."

THE PRODIGAL'S THANKSGIVING RETURN.

A Lost Opportunity.

"I was bunked in with a lot of cowboys at an Arizona hotel one night," said the Chicago drummer, "and had been asleep for an hour or so when one of my teeth began to ache and woke me up. I went downstairs after whiskey, and I nearly burned my tongue out with pepper sauce, and I finally had to dress and sit up beside the office stove the remainder of the night. In the morning the boys noticed my swollen face as they came down, and one of them looked me over and asked: 'Well, pard, what is it?' 'Toothache.' 'Bother you all night?' 'All night long.' 'Humph! You must be a queer sort of cuss. Why didn't you say something about it and let one of us shoot the darned thing out by the roots?'"

AN HONOR.

"Kin I help yer carry de turkey home, Tommie?"
"I'm sorry, Jimmie, but dat honor is reserved for me most particular an' intimate friends."

Spoke Too Soon.

"My dear," said the caller, "I was over to see Mrs. Gabbit yesterday afternoon, and you just ought to have heard what she said about you. Why, she talked about you all the time I was there."
"Mrs. Gabbit?" exclaimed the hostess warmly. "Well, all I've got to say is that nobody believes a word she says. That woman couldn't speak the truth if she tried. Everything she says is pure invention. I won't give it a worse name, but I have my own opinion."
"I'm dreadfully sorry to hear it. She talked all the time about you and said she thought you were the nicest woman in this town and a lot more of the same nature."

THEY NEVER DO.

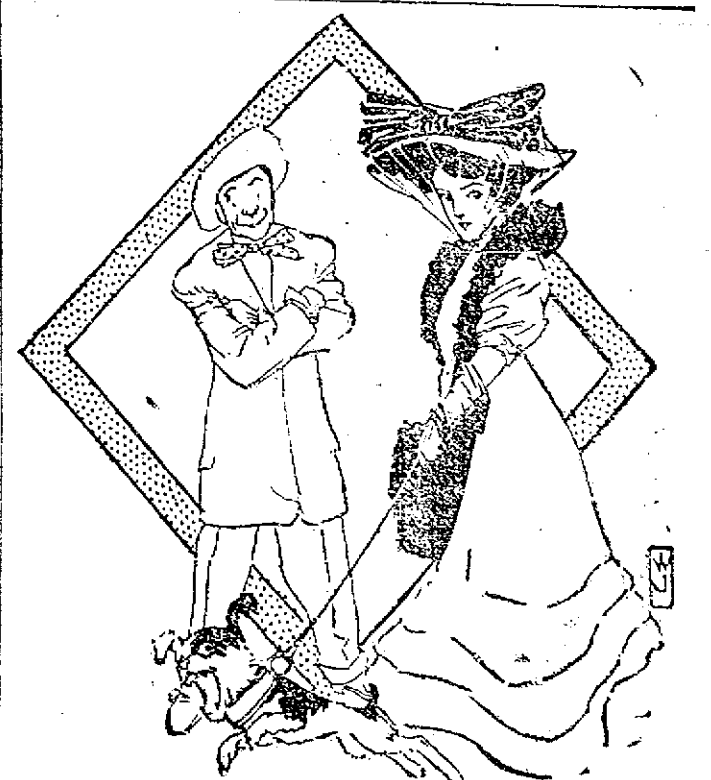

"This author never met a woman."
"How do you know?"
"He says here 'Words failed here.'"

As a Matter of Form.

A Scotch bailie recently advanced to the bench had a criminal placed before him accused of some very modest violation of the law. Of course the bailie knew the prisoner well. He heard the charge stated.
"John, man, I'm sorry to see you here. We'll just fine you half a crown."
The clerk here intervened.
"But the charge is not yet proved. We have not heard the evidence."
Then said the benignant bailie:
"Ah, well, John, my man, as the charge is not proved we'll just fine you 15 pence."

WASTE EFFORT.

"Time flies."
"Yes, but it never seems to get any where."

NO ADVANTAGE.

"Got a license for your dog?"
"Have to have one?"
"Sure."
"Pshaw! If he is going to be as much bother as that, I might as well have a husband."
